'Squire Johnson's Office, Several state cases were brought before Justice Johnson, yesterday morning. Joseph Gommick, who had been connected with Jimmy Hampton in the retail liquor business, was arraigned on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences from C. L. Zane & Co., to the charge of obtaining goods under raise pretences from C. L. Zane & Co., to the amount of $390.

It was tolerably clear, from the evidence in the case, that Gommick had obtained the goods by representing himself as in partnership with Jimmy Hampton, also that his statement in the matter was false. Justice Johnson, therefore, held him to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court.

Another case was that of Gillian'A. Peck against Michael Donnelly, for making all sorts of violent threats against the person of Gillian. The suit was dismissed at complainant's costs. Still another case was the State of West Virginia against Patrick Quinlan for assapit and battery. When it was called the prosecutor appeared, bent upon sending Pat. up for trial. He thought better of it, however in a little while, and concluded it would be best to drop the thing, provided Pat. would to drop the thing, provided Pat. Would pay the costs and hand over to him a small sum by way of consideration for in consequence. The matter was satisfactorily arranged, and both complain ant and defendant departed.

the Legislature in 1864, was held in Ceredo on the 7th inst.

Ceredo on the 7th inst.

An almost entire change was made in the Board of Directors, which is now constituted as follows:

Henry McFarland, of New Jersey; J.

B. Bassinger, do.; A. G. Crane, do.; H.

D. Cooke, Washington, D. C.; L. Ayer, Ceredo; Milion Sheldon, do.; Thomas H. Logan, Wheeling; Thomas W. H. Mosely, Boston, Mass. Henry S. Broadwell, Esq., of New Jersey, was elected President.

The change in the D. The change in the Board of Directors was a source of gratification to the peo-ple along the route, who feel that there is now a fair prospect of the early con-struction and completion of the road. The road between Ceredo and Charles-ton has been placed under contract ton has been placed under contract, and the contractor goes immediately to work. The interest of the State in this enterprise is represented under author-ity of the Board of Public Works by Dr. T. H. Logan of this city.

IMPROVEMENT.—Yesterday, Mr. Fairfax, architect, was kind enough to show us the draft for a new building to be erected next spring, on the corner of Main and Webster streets, Centre Wheeling, by D. Levi, Esq.

The building is designed for a store room and dwelling house, the store to occupy the large rooms on the first floof; the dwelling to be above. The dimensions are as follows; The main building to have a front of 40 feet on Main street, and running back on Webster 70 feet. To this will be added a back building of 50 feet depth, designed for a kitchen, dining room, pantries, &c. The front will be three stories high, the first of fron. The windows will have iron caps. A heavy cornice will extend along the front. And the corners of the building will commence some time in April next.

POLICE MATTERS,-At the Police Police Matters,—At the Police Court, yesterday morning, a number of those necessary citizens, the sellers of whisky, ale and beer, were arraigned for following their business on Sunday. The following are the names of those finad, with the respective amounts; Schaffer, $10 and costs; Adam Blum, $10 and costs; Herman Renner, two charges, $10 and costs; Herman Renner, two charges, $10 and costs on each charge. A warrant had also been issued against B. Kammer, for the same offense, and it having been entrusted to officer Brady, that gentleman served it on the wrong man. There was consequently nothing done. But we expect to see Mr. Kammer at the court this morning.

Bold Robbert at Washington, Pa.
—Some gentry of the thieving profession made an attempt, on Sunday night last, to carry off all the funds of Washington county, Pa. Foreing an entrance into the Treasurer's office, they blew open the door of a large safe standing in it, expecting to find therein a large sum of money. They were considerably disappointed, however, obtaining only three or four hundred dollars, which happened to be lying in one of the outer compartments of the safe. The main portion of the funds in his possession, the Treasurer had deposited, on the Saturday evening previous, in the Franklin Bank, and either discovering the absence of these or becoming alarmed at the report of the charge of powder placed in the keyhole of the safe, the burglars decamped, leaving their tools behind them.

Some of the windows of the building were shattered by the concussion, but, strange to say, no one in the vicinity heard it, and the state of affairs was not discovered until Monday morning. No trace of the parties engaged has been brought to light.

Constantly on hand Wheeler & Wilson's, Howe's, Singer's and Florence Sewing Machines, at lowest cash prices. Call and see them, at 99 Main street.

the river was falling slowly with about five feet six inches of water in the channel.

The Edinburg arrived from Cincinnati, and the Potomac and Silver Cloud departed.

The regular packets to-day are the Eagle, for Parkersburg, at 11 a. m.; James Rees, for Sunfish, at 3 p. m.; Henry Logan, for Stenbenville, at 2½ p. m.; Zanesville, for Bellaire, at 7 and 10 a. m., and 3 p. m.; and Edinburg, for Cincinnati, at 5 p. m.

The following information comes from Vicksburg, by way of the Cincinnati Commercial:

The Myrtle, while ascending Yazoo river, struck a snag at the foot of Honey Island, causing her to sink in about ten minutes. As soon as she encountered the snag, she was put into the bank, the stage run out, and the passengers safely landed. When our informant left she was lying partially careened, with her starboard guard nearly out of water. She had settled to her hurricane roof on the larboard side. Her cargo, which was quite large, will be saved in a damaged condition. As a submarine boat is at Yazoo City, she will soon be raised.

SURPRISING.—It is actually surprising ho SURPRISING.—It is actually surprising how soon our people have learned to prize the invaluable article known as Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It certainly acts like magic, for it will cure the very worst cases of dyspepsia, and enable the patient, who has lived for years upon Graham bread and the plainest food, to eat anything he chooses without fear of distress. It is considered the most valuable runedy known for all diseases of the stomach and howels.

THE COMBINATION OF PULVERIBED Asias and viscous matter as a roofing material stands unrivalled. A mastic-it adapts itself to every shape and stope. It is noncombustible, impervious, non expansive, and undecaying. Frost does not erack, nor heat dissolve it. The only roofing material ever discovered that will resist the action of the elements as long as as the structure it protects. For repairing old and preserving new mastallic nonfor all kinds, Plastic Siste has never been equalled, while it has proved an invaluable acquisition to the mechanisate as a preserver of metal and wood when imbedded in water or earth, or exposed to the weather. Being susceptible of little, if any wear from exposure, and perfectly firperof, it is unequalled as a paint for rullroad and furni brildings, fonces and bridges, from the down or wooden.
